You can talk to a phone financial counsellor from anywhere in Australia by ringing 1800 007 007 (minimum opening hours are 9.30 am – 4.30 pm Monday to Friday). This number will automatically switch through to the service in the State or Territory closest to you.

An early intervention program supporting individuals, families and communities improve their money management skills and wellbeing.

We aim to help

- address immediate needs in times of financial stress
- you make informed choices to address financial problems
- with financial education and coaching to encourage behaviour change and improve financial resilience
- you link to other service providers such as job training.

All clients can receive financial counselling, including a comprehensive assessment and case plan, to help improve their ability to manage financial affairs and improve overall wellbeing.

Entry requirement: Agency, family and self-referrals accepted.

Program funded by the Australian Government Department of Social Services.
